Purpose:
This resource guide was designed to assist and empower parents in their journey of researching optimal services for their children with Autism Spectrum Disorders by providing information on local resources. New providers are always entering the market, and existing listings may change. We do our best to keep up with changes. We do not expect to have covered all treatment areas or listed all providers. Please feel free to contact the Autism Society with additional programs or information you would like to see listed. We reserve the right to add or remove providers from this guide.

Disclaimer:
The Autism Society of Southeastern Wisconsin Resource Directory was developed to provide information only and does not recommend, endorse, guarantee, or promote the services and interventions included in this guide.

BENEFITS CONTACTS BY COUNTY

The Children's Long-Term Support Home and Community-Based Medicaid Waivers (CLTS Waivers) provide a structure within which Medicaid funding is available to support children who are living at home or in the community and who have substantial limitations in multiple daily activities as a result of one or more of the following disabilities: developmental disabilities, severe emotional disturbances, and physical disabilities. Funding can be used to support a range of different services that are identified based on an individual assessment of the child and his or her needs.

The Katie Beckett Program offers a special eligibility process to allow certain children with long term disabilities, severe emotional disabilities or complex medical needs living at home with their family, to access a Wisconsin Forward Health Medicaid card. A child may be eligible for Medicaid through this program even if they are covered under the family’s private insurance or if their assets and income are too high to qualify for other Medicaid Programs. See: https://www.dhs.wisconsin.gov/kbp/consultants.htm

The ACCESS website is a quick way for people who live in Wisconsin to find out if they might be able to get the following: help with buying food, low- or no-cost health care, help with buying prescription drugs, help with paying for child care, W-2 cash assistance and help finding a job, home energy assistance, earned income, child and Homestead tax credits, low cost life insurance. See: https://access.wisconsin.gov

Aging and Disability Resource Centers (ADRC) offer the general public a single entry point for information and assistance on issues affecting older people, and people with disabilities ages 17.5+, regardless of their income. Services can be provided over the telephone, in the resource center, or in your own home. See: www.dhs.wisconsin.gov/adrc

WSPEI is all about partnerships. Its goal is to help families and school district staff find and create resources that will help them build positive working relationships. WSPEI provides information, training, resources, referral, and support around special education, family engagement, and other disability-related topics. WSPEI provides the following services: Assist parents and families with connecting to their child’s IEP goals, supports, and accommodations. Assist families to engage in conversations with schools about their child’s reading and literacy. Share strategies to navigate the school system. Access to free electronic or hard copy educational materials. Connect to other parents and organizations. Provide educational opportunities to learn how to participate in their child’s development and learning. Information about options if you disagree with a decision of the school.

One of their programs, Parents in Partnership (PIP), is a statewide opportunity for leadership development for parents of children with disabilities. They also offer the Youth in Partnership with Parents for Empowerment (YiPPE) Program for youth ages 14-21 to become self-advocates.

Services are free throughout the state of Wisconsin. Does have Spanish-speaking coordinators.

WSPEI – Wisconsin Statewide Parent Educator Initiative......................... (833) 879-7734
www.wspei.org
wspei@cesa12.org

WSPEI is all about partnerships. Its goal is to help families and school district staff find and create resources that will help them build positive working relationships. WSPEI provides information, training, resources, referral, and support around special education, family engagement, and other disability-related topics. WSPEI provides the following services: Assist parents and families with connecting to their child’s IEP goals, supports, and accommodations. Assist families to engage in conversations with schools about their child’s reading and literacy. Share strategies to navigate the school system. Access to free electronic or hard copy educational materials. Connect to other parents and organizations. Provide educational opportunities to learn how to participate in their child’s development and learning. Information about options if you disagree with a decision of the school.

One of their programs, Parents in Partnership (PIP), is a statewide opportunity for leadership development for parents of children with disabilities. They also offer the Youth in Partnership with Parents for Empowerment (YiPPE) Program for youth ages 14-21 to become self-advocates.

Services are free throughout the state of Wisconsin.

Does have Spanish-speaking coordinators.

PEDiatricians

Note: These are not doctors who specialize in autism. These are pediatricians recommended by members who have a child with an autism spectrum disorder who feel their child’s doctor is sensitive to the challenges of treating the healthcare needs of a child with autism. RELIGION

SPRED (“Special Religious Development”) ...........................................(414) 595-7921
6650 West State Street, Suite 198 Milwaukee, WI 53213
www.spredmilwaukee.org
info@spredpartners.org
Serves ages 6 and older in the greater Milwaukee area.
SPRED (Special Religious Development) is a small faith community in a parish which includes children or adults with special needs. SPRED integrates people with developmental disabilities more fully into the mainstream of parish life: it offers faith formation, gives parishioners an inviting place and opportunity to connect with persons with disabilities, and offers ways to more fully include persons with disabilities into the liturgy. The SPRED method creates an awareness of God while giving our SPRED friends a sense that they are loved by God and are persons of honor and dignity. Our SPRED friends learn to know God.
There is not a fee for the program but there is a suggested annual membership of $85.
Does not have Spanish-speaking groups at this time.
